

Guardian Recognizes Top Financial Representative for 2013

Eric Bouskila, Financial Representative at New York-Based National Financial Network, Recognized as Highest Life Sales Producer in 2013

New York, NY, April 8, 2014 – The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America (Guardian), one of the nation's largest mutual life insurers and a leading provider of employee benefits, today announced that Jaacov Eric Bouskila of New York-based National Financial Network, LLC was the company's number one producer for life sales in 2013.

"We're thrilled to recognize Eric as our top life producer for 2013," said Guardian Senior Vice President Michael Ferik. "Eric is the epitome of hardworking professionalism and serves as a true inspiration to financial representatives everywhere for the positive impact they can have on their clients' financial futures."

Jaacov Eric Bouskila has been a financial representative at Guardian since June 2010, and today has more than 75 high net-worth clients, managing a book of business valued at more than $10 million. His emphasis is on establishing long-term relationships to help his clients achieve financial stability through advanced leveraged planning, estate planning, succession planning, and optimized life insurance planning for retirement.

"It's an incredible honor to be named Guardian's highest overall producer," said Eric. "Being a financial representative enables me to combine my passion for helping people with my belief in creating value for clients by designing financial strategies to help meet today's protection and retirement requirements. It's truly gratifying to work in this business and know you can help people by ensuring they have the protection they need."
